Buses in Aarhus

From downtown Aarhus to the workshop venue
Take bus 2A – direction 'Skejby Sygehus'.
Your stop is 'Paludan-Müllers Vej/Finlandsgade'. It is right next to the shopping centre Storcenter Nord. The bus departs several times every hour.
It takes around 20 minutes to get to your destination.

From workshop venue to downtown Aarhus
Bus 2A – direction 'Holme'.

Timetables
Timetables and general information about buses can be found at:
https://www.midttrafik.dk/koereplaner/bybusser/aarhus.aspx

Tickets and prices
The bus fare costs 20 DKK for a two-zone ticket. Buy the ticket in a machine (pay with Danish coins) in the bus and choose an adult two-zone ticket. Tickets are valid two hours onward from the time of purchase during daytime.
We recommend that you buy a two-zone multi-ride ticket (in Danish "klippekort") at newsstands and at the bus station.

Bus app
Please note that the bus company, Midttrafik, has just launched a free ticket app (in Danish only).
With the app you can buy for instance 24-hour and 48-hour tickets.
Search for Midttrafik in your app store:

Sightseeing in Aarhus

VisitAarhus
Please check the brochures in your workshop bag for tourist information about Aarhus. You may also visit the Visit Aarhus website at:

http://www.visitaarhus.com/ln-int/denmark/tourist-in-aarhus

AarhusCard
An AarhusCard is valid for 24 or 48 hours. The card enables you to travel as you please within zone 1 and 2 on city buses and regional buses. Furthermore, you get discounts on the entrance for museums/attractions and for cafés, restaurants and much more. Buy the AarhusCard at your hotel or at the bus station.

http://www.visitaarhus.com/ln-int/central-jutland/amusement-themed-parks/discounts-aarhuscard

Museums
While you are in town, you may want to visit:

Aros (museum of contemporary art)
Den Gamle By ('The Old Town' – open-air museum of urban history and culture)
Moesgaard Museum (prehistory and ethnographic museum).
NEW SPECIAL EXHIBITION: Gladiator – Heroes of the Colosseum.

Restaurants and bars
Aarhus boasts a wide selection of restaurants and bars in downtown Aarhus. All price ranges are available. You may for instance visit the area around Aarhus river where cafes, bars and restaurants lie side by side.

Walking and biking
Aarhus is famous for its location close to the seaside and forests. You can rent a Citybike or go for a walk in the forests and parks in and around Aarhus (nice places to visit are Moesgaard Strand, Mindeparken, Marselisborg Marina, the Botanical Gardens). Read more about CityBikes at
